“Riccarton Park Trainers Prize”

Colbus and Ware, Now based at Merivale Mall, Christchurch

The Colbus and Ware, Now based at Merivale Mall, Christchurch “Riccarton Park Trainers Prize”

Each 2015-2016 season meeting at Riccarton Park (Canterbury / Westland / Marlborough) trainers received an entry for each winner to enter the Colbus and Ware prize of a Rembrandt suit valued at $850.

The draw of all eligible entries from last season was undertaken on August 6th with Shane Laming the lucky winner.

The winner in 2014/15 was Lance Robinson, 2013/14 was Danny Crozier, 2012/13 was the Shane Kennedy & Anna Furlong partnership making it a double for Shane who won also from the 2010-2011 season. Teri Rae won in 2011-2012.

44 trainers were eligible with at least one winner at Riccarton Park during the 2015-2016 season with a combined total of 137 entries

Canterbury Racing and the local Trainers Association thank Colbus and Ware for this support which continues in 2016-17

Those in the draw to date for 2016/17 are

Welcome to Riccarton Park

For over 160 years the Canterbury Jockey Club has been at the forefront of New Zealand racing conducting some of the most prestigious races in the country. Riccarton Park Racecourse is home to 23 racedays each with the season highlights being the New Zealand Cup Meeting in November, Grand National Racing Festival (Jumps Racing) in August and the four day Autumn Racing Season.

The Clubs racing calendar is defined by.

- The Iconic Christchurch Casino New Zealand Cup over the staying test of 3200 metres.
- Group 1 Sothys New Zealand 2000 Guineas. $400,000 over the classic distance of 1600 metres.
- Group 1 gavelhouse.com New Zealand 1000 Guineas for the three-year-old fillies.
- Group 2 Coupland’s Bakeries Mile over the 1600 metres distance.
- These three races form the backbone of the New Zealand Cup Meeting.
- Racecourse Hotel & Motor Lodge Grand National Steeplechase in August.
- Hospitality New Zealand Canterbury Grand National Hurdle Race also in August.
- 23 Group, Listed and Prestige jumping races are held each year.
- On 11 of these races the Club pays well above the industry funded minimum stake.
- 18 of the Clubs 23 racedays are Feature, premier or Iconic racemeetings.
- Minimum stake of $20,000 for all races except the $10,000 maidens on these days.
- Minimum stake of $10,000 at the five Industry and Tier 2 Feature days.
- Racing conducted every moth except for July.
- Total stakes of $6.2 million distributed over the 23 racedays.

The 2017 Grand National Racing Festival dates are Saturday 5, Wednesday 9 & Saturday 12 August while the NZ Cup Meeting is on Saturday 11, Wednesday 15 & Saturday 18 November 2017.

Daphne Lois Bannan

Daphne was the second of three children of Kenneth and Margaret Cartwright.

Born on the 24th November 1933 in Christchurch they lived at 125a Colombo Street.

Daphne went to Christchurch West High School, now Hagley High, there she met her husband to be Donald Raymond Bannan.

Upon leaving school she worked in the office of a shipping company.

She married Don in 1955 and from then on worked with him in their grocery businesses.

They owned shops in Merivale, Spreydon and then set up the Super Value at Ilam, later they also owned the Super Value on Wairakei Road.

Daphne shared Don’s interest in horse racing and they owned a number of good quality Standardbreds.

Daphne went to university later in life and studied German, she became an interpreter and tour guide and made many German and Austrian friends.

She enjoyed singing as was part of a choir for many years. She was also very interested in the arts and even made furniture.

After Don passed away in 1999 Daphne was diagnosed with multiple myeloma. She fought hard against this ailment and enjoyed the latter part of her life. A significant part of this enjoyment was attending Riccarton Park on race days amongst her many friends there.

Daphne passed away at the Maidstone Hospital and Care Home on Withells Road on 9 June 2016.

The memory of Daphne will be remembered each year at Riccarton Park as from 2018 the Autumn Racing Season will feature the Daphne Bannan Memorial Great Easter Stakes, the historic 1400 metre Listed race will honour her memory.

We understand that life gets pretty hard sometimes and we offer a confidential service to those within the racing industry any time it’s needed. Whether life is feeling like a struggle in general or if there’s a specific issue that you’re up against, we are available to do the journey with you and to offer every tool in our toolbox in order to see you thrive in your work environment. Just some of the practical things we can make available are:

- An understanding, down-to-earth person who is there to listen to you
- One to one help with spiritual needs and/or life choices
- A budgeting service
- An extensive (and fully confidential) addictions support service
- Assistance at court proceedings
- Hospital visitation
- Emergency help by way of food parcels, clothing and household goods

MEMBER’S REWARDS AT RICCAR rON PARK

Friday continues our new till system within the Club Grandstand which provides new rewards for Members via the Member Card. Purchases of food and beverages on Racedays will now earn points which can be redeemed when attending racedays at Riccarton Park. For example, spend $100 and earn $3 for redemption. This means you are earning points across products and bars so other voucher offers have been discontinued.

Swiping your card for a purchase is now the mechanism to record attendance so swiping in the Raceday Office is no longer required.

Earn extra points on highlighted products. On Friday May 19th purchase of selected craft beers in the Nightmarch & Beaumaris bars will earn 4 x points. See how quickly they can grow into valuable points as $100 generates $12 with these items!

In addition for this Friday, there will be 2 additional specials

Panhead Super Charger APA $9.00 bottle (quadruple points) – voted New Zealand’s best beer 2 years running / Mt Difficulty Bannockburn Pinot Noir 2014 (quadruple points) $12 glass $55 bottle - voted 95 out of 100 by Bob Campbell Master Winemaker

Register your Member Card – You only need to do this if you didn’t register on the previous days. You can do this at any of the bars as they are all linked. That will make transactions on the day a breeze. You do not have to purchase anything at this stage and this is a once only registration.

To make a purchase – present your card first to the bar person to be swiped, order food or beverage, make the payment and your points are automatically recorded.

The staff will be able to answer any questions you may have but it is a new system so if you have additional questions then Julie will be available to assist in the Raceday Office.

Enjoy the day see those points grow.

Remembering ‘PV’
10 August 1957 – 7 June 2016
One Year Anniversary

If popularity is a mark of success then Paul Venis was amongst the most successful people to walk the Riccarton Park Racecourse.

Paul – or PV – as he was universally known was a ‘die-hard’ racing enthusiast in the typical manner of many a ‘West Coaster’. PV was born on the Coast.

A love of racing, nurtured as a toddler with a chair for a horse and a belt for reigns, filled his life to the end when ‘The Informant’ and ‘Trackside TV’ comforted him and held his interest whilst he battled ill-health.

Working in the printing industry saw him make friends with fellow racing fans due to the Canterbury Jockey Club race-books being printed under his careful watch.

Punting and shares in racehorses, trips to the far flung corners of New Zealand – ‘The Coast’, Omakau, Tauherenikau – not to mention regular haunts such as Riccarton Park and Wingatui made for the life of a punter the likes of which are the backbone of the sport.

PV famously pushed TV presenter Phil Leishaman from his preferred set up site saying the he, PV, stood there every Riccarton raceday and was not giving up his position in front of the winners weigh-in stall for anyone.

This interest created a natural gravitation toward friendships with many a trainer, jockey and fellow owner. His best horse WAZAWATSYN was trained by close friends Peter and Dawn Williams for whom PV later worked.

PV will be missed by his legion of mates, his mother and father Shirley and Les, sister Gail and her family and brother Kevin.

FastTrack is a well known brand in our industry and is here to stay. After only one year in its life “FastTrackinsurance” is already funding $5,000.00 “added stakes” races, with more to come. Significantly increasing stakes on selected races from Clubs in the North, to Riccarton and Wingatui in the South; a true national initiative supporting our industry through Clubs, Breeders, Owners, Jockeys, Trainers and all who are part of the sport of horse racing we all love so much.

Many well known racing personalities have switched their insurances to FastTrack, such as George Simon- Race Caller, Rick Williams- GM The Oaks Stud, Opie Bosson- Jockey, Noel Harris- Jockey, Mark Du Plessis- Jockey, Tim Mills- CEO Canterbury Racing Club, Graeme Richardson-Richardson Racing, Kevin Pratt- Kamada Park, Jim Bruford- Insurance Manager, just to name a few.....

Why wouldn't you?
